

ONES TO WATCH

MATTHIAS HOEGG

Before joining Beakus, Matthias Hoegg studied for an MA in Animation at the Royal College of Art, London. He was born in Munich in 1983 and moved to England in 2003 to study Illustration and Animation at Kingston University, where he produced his graduation film "Nightlife" in 2006.

He worked as a freelance animator, composer and concept illustrator with Tokyoplastic, Tandem films and other London based studios before joining the Royal College of Art in 2008.

Hoegg's first film made at the RCA, "August" was completed in June 2009. The film was shown at the Holland Animation Festival (HAFF) 2009, DOK Leipzig 2009, Exposures 2009, Encounters 2009, Anima Brussels 2010 and many others around the World.

Hoegg is currently putting finishing touches to his graduation film at the RCA, due to be completed in June 2010.
